The trustees of your pension scheme have an insurance agreement (the "Agreement") in place with Rothesay under which they have insured certain benefits payable to and in respect of you under your scheme. In order for us to fulfil our obligations under the Agreement, Rothesay and the trustees of your scheme will exchange personal data concerning you and your benefits under the scheme.

In some circumstances, we will control the processing of your personal data. In broad terms, these circumstances are where we process your personal data for the following purposes:

1. To ensure that we are paying the right amounts under the Agreement. This involves us sharing personal data with our service providers and professional advisers.

3. To fulfil our legal and regulatory obligations.
4. To operate our business. In particular, we provide personal data to third parties who collate such data from a wide variety of sources and publish reports on how long people in the UK live and other demographic trends which we use to understand our liabilities in respect of our current and future policyholders.
5. To prepare to issue an individual pension annuity policy directly to you in the event that the trustees of your scheme ask us to do so in the future.
6. To enable us to exercise our legal rights and defend ourselves against potential legal claims, should we need to do so.

Our privacy notice provides full details about how we process your personal data and your rights under data protection laws.
